Initially, the government of India gave this award for outstanding performance in the field of sports for one year, but this duration was changed to four years in the year 2015. • The government of India forms a committee of 12 members who evaluate the performance of a sportsperson. • The evaluation is done for various international sporting events such as Olympic Games, Asian Games, Commonwealth Games and Paralympic Games. • Once the committee arrives at a decision, they submit their recommendation to the Union Minister of Youth Affairs and Sports for further approval.

2) Arjuna Award (1961) - This award is given to a sportsperson who has consistently exhibited outstanding performance for four years. • All Arjuna Awardees receive a cash prize of Rs. 5 lakhs, a certificate, and statuettes

3) Dronacharya Award (1985) - “Behind every successful sportsperson there is a coach” Seeing the valuable contribution that coaches have in the sports field, the government of India decided to honour the coaches as well. The Dronacharya Awardees are those who have produced medal winners at prestigious international sports events. • Dronacharya Awardees are offered a cash prize of 5 lakh, certificate and statuette.

4) Dyanchand Award (2002) - The Dyanchand Award is given for lifetime contribution to sports development.
   • This award is named after Major Dhyan Chand, an Indian hockey player who scored over 1000 goals during a career span of over 20 years. • Dyanchand Awardees are offered a cash prize of 5 lakh, certificate and statuette.
